HYMN #589 "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee" Vs. 1&4

O Master, let me walk with thee in lowly paths of service free, tell me thy secret: help me bear the strain of toil, the fret of care.

In hope that sends a shining ray far down the future's broadening way, in peace that only thou canst give, with thee, O Master, let me live.

OFFERING INVITATION:

Just as Christ has taught the way of life to us, the church, we have the responsibility of bringing life to the world around us through our ministries and the outreach of missions through our connections of faith around the globe. OFFERTORY: "Twenty-Third Psalm - An Interpretation" ...F.
Waterman

*All around me deep inside me, my creator sings His song, and its music is the beauty of this world where I belong.
With the sun He lifts my eyes up to behold His righteousness,
On the wind He send me comfort, with the rain He sends me rest.
Though the clouds of sorrow gather, and the night falls all too soon,
Hope of morning fills my dwelling, and my fears can find no room.
Surely goodness is not fleeting, surely mercy is not dust,
I will go into forever on His rising wing of trust.*

OFFERTORY RESPONSE: #726 We Praise You, O God Vs. 1

Scripture

Psalm 78 NRSV

God's Goodness and Israel's Ingratitude A Maskil of Asaph.

- ¹ Give ear, O my people, to my teaching;
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
- ² I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will utter dark sayings from of old,
- ³ things that we have heard and known,
that our ancestors have told us.

⁴ We will not hide them from their children;
we will tell to the coming generation
the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might,
and the wonders that he has done.

⁵ He established a decree in Jacob,
and appointed a law in Israel,
which he commanded our ancestors
to teach to their children;

⁶ that the next generation might know them,
the children yet unborn,
and rise up and tell them to their children,

⁷ so that they should set their hope in God,
and not forget the works of God,
but keep his commandments;

I Thessalonians 4:13-18 NRSV

The Coming of the Lord

¹³ But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. ¹⁴ For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. ¹⁵ For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. ¹⁶ For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so, we will be with the Lord forever.

¹⁸ Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Matthew 25: 14-30 NRSV

The Parable of the Talents

¹⁴ "For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; ¹⁵ to one he gave five talents, ^[a] to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. ¹⁶ The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. ¹⁷ In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. ¹⁸ But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. ¹⁹ After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. ²⁰ Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' ²¹ His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' ²² And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' ²³ His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' ²⁴ Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; ²⁵ so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' ²⁶ But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? ²⁷ Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return, I would have received what was my own with interest. ²⁸ So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. ²⁹ For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. ³⁰ As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

688 We Give Thee but Thine Own

The image shows a page of a hymnal with musical notation and lyrics. The music is in 4/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of two systems of music, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The lyrics are printed below the vocal line of each system.

1 We give thee but thine own, what-e'er the gift may be:
2 May we thy boun-ties thus as stew-ards true re-ceive,
3 To com-fort and to bless, to find a balm for woe,
4 The cap-tive to re-lieve, to God the lost to bring,
5 And we be-lieve thy word, though dim our faith may be:

all that we have is thine a-lone, a trust, O Lord, from thee.
and glad-ly, as thou bless-est us, to thee our first-fruits give.
to tend the lone and fa-ther-less is an-gels' work be-low.
to teach the way of life and peace-it is a Christ-like thing.
what-e'er for thine we do, O Lord, we do it un-to thee.
