Scriptures

Psalm 119: 137 – 144 NRSV

137 You are righteous, O LORD,
and your judgments are right.

138 You have appointed your decrees in righteousness
and in all faithfulness.

139 My zeal consumes me
because my foes forget your words.

140 Your promise is well tried,
and your servant loves it.

- <sup>141</sup> I am small and despised,
yet I do not forget your precepts.
- <sup>142</sup> Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness,
and your law is the truth.
- <sup>143</sup> Trouble and anguish have come upon me,
but your commandments are my delight.
- <sup>144</sup> Your decrees are righteous forever;
give me understanding that I may live.

2 Thessalonians 1: 1 – 4, 11 - 12 NRSV

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and
the Lord Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. <sup>4</sup> Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

<sup>11</sup> To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, <sup>12</sup> so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 19: 1 - 10 NRSV

19 He entered Jericho and was passing through it. <sup>2</sup> A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. <sup>3</sup> He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. <sup>4</sup> So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. <sup>5</sup> When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today.” <sup>6</sup> So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. <sup>7</sup> All who saw it began to grumble and said, “He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner.” <sup>8</sup> Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, “Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much.” <sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because he, too, is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.”

AUDIO & VIDEO RECORDINGS If you or anyone you know would like to receive the link to the audio recording of the worship service, please let Bill Rumble know at wrumble@ptd.net. ## BETHLEHEM EMERGENCY SHELTER

The leaves are changing and the weather is getting cooler. That means we are less than one month away from the opening of the Bethlehem Emergency Shelter! Bethany UCC has the privilege of taking care of our homeless neighbors again this season on three different occasions. Our schedule includes providing the dinner meals on Friday, December 9th, Tuesday, February 14th and Friday, March 3rd. Sign-up sheets for all three days are posted on the bulletin board. If you have been guided by the Holy Spirit to participate this season, please sign up for the position you would like to fill. For those of you that have volunteered in the past, THANK YOU, and I hope you will consider joining us again this season. You will note that this season there are no spots to sign up for registration. This particular task will now be done by the paid staff at the shelter as this year begins a new automated registration! Of course, we still need you fabulous bakers to assist us with dessert selections and there is a spot on the sign-up sheets for you too! We are also accepting monetary donations to purchase the items to prepare the dinners. If you have any questions or would like more information, please do not hesitate to call me at (610) 807-9438 or talk to me in church! Thank you to all of you who have already expressed an interest in volunteering this season and I look forward to working with you and sharing God's grace in our community!

Blessings,

Sherri Gangewere

Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost

Luke 19:1-10

Transforming Love

UCC Higher Education Sunday

On this United Church of Christ Higher Education Sunday, we celebrate all the institutions of higher learning that claim historic or current affiliation with the UCC. Among those are several HBCUs (Historically Black Colleges and Universities). One of those HBCUs in New Orleans, Louisiana, is Dillard University.

Founded in 1935, Dillard is the result of the merger of two historically African American institutions. Immediately following Emancipation in the mid-1860's, the Methodist Episcopal Church founded Thompson Biblical Institute to train African American ministers. A few years later, the American Missionary Association of the Congregational Church established Straight University in New Orleans. Today, Dillard University is the result of that merger and is affiliated with both the United Methodist Church and the United Church of Christ.

Dillard continues the training envisioned by its founding organizations so many years ago through Lawless Chapel Ministry's (LCM) "VisionQuest, a program that aids students in pursuing ordained, music and lay ministry, and helps students find the work, and the life, to which God has called them.

LCM and VisionQuest accomplish their purposes by offering a lively worship service in Lawless Chapel every Sunday while the University is in session. The style of worship represents an eclectic mix of the University's two affiliations (United Methodist and United Church of Christ) with a little bit of Baptist, and a measure of creative experimentation that reflects the cultural exuberance of the city of New Orleans. The VisionQuest Chorale and Liturgical Dancers and Mime Ministry provide the music and dance for worship--be it on campus, throughout New Orleans, or beyond the city."*
