Scriptures

Psalm 32 NRSV

- <sup>1</sup> Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
- <sup>2</sup> Happy are those to whom the LORD imputes no iniquity and in whose spirit there is no deceit.
- <sup>3</sup> While I kept silent, my body wasted away through my groaning all day long.
- <sup>4</sup> For day and night your hand was heavy upon me;
my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer. Selah
- <sup>5</sup> Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not hide my iniquity;
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore let all who are faithful offer prayer to you;
at a time of distress, the rush of mighty waters
shall not reach them.
- <sup>7</sup> You are a hiding place for me;
you preserve me from trouble;
you surround me with glad cries of deliverance. Selah
- <sup>8</sup> I will instruct you and teach you the way you should go;
I will counsel you with my eye upon you.
- <sup>9</sup> Do not be like a horse or a mule, without understanding,
whose temper must be curbed with bit and bridle,
else it will not stay near you.
- <sup>10</sup> Many are the torments of the wicked,
but steadfast love surrounds those who trust in the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, O righteous,
and shout for joy, all you upright in heart.

Romans 5: 12 - 19 NRSV

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned— <sup>13</sup> for sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law. <sup>14</sup> Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin in the likeness of Adam, who is a pattern of the one who was to come.

<sup>15</sup> But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many. <sup>16</sup> And the gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the gift following many trespasses brings justification. <sup>17</sup> If, because of the one man's trespass, death reigned through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup> Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all. <sup>19</sup> For just as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so through the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

Matthew 4: 1 – 11 NRSV

4 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tested by the devil. <sup>2</sup> He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterward he was famished. <sup>3</sup> The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.” <sup>4</sup> But he answered, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’” <sup>5</sup> Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, <sup>6</sup> saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you,’ and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’” <sup>7</sup> Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” <sup>8</sup> Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, <sup>9</sup> and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” <sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Away with you, Satan! for it is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’” <sup>11</sup> Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

We are also looking for bakers. I am so happy to report that our remaining night at the shelter is fully staffed and a huge thank you goes out to our wonderful volunteers. We could not do this without you. Thank you again for your continued commitment to this very important philanthropy!

Full of resurrection triumph, it also gives voice the doubt and fear of the first witnesses of the empty tomb. The final part of Messiah focuses on eternal life, including the rousing aria, "I know my Redeemer liveth," for soprano, and joyful choruses of thanksgiving and acclamation. Join us on March 26th @ 4pm. Tickets range from $9-$45.

Sponsor a Bill

It is once again time to renew our music licensing for the next year. This helps Sue to arrange the beautiful music we hear each week as part of our service. The price for this license is $150. If you would like to contribute to this cost, please mark your donations to Music License. Thank You

Please remember when you are at Bethany for any reason to make sure all doors are closed and all lights are turned off. On two different occasions I have come to church and found both the front and rear door slightly ajar. Since someone is not here every day this could cause problems. It just takes a minute to make sure the door is properly latched. Open interior doors could create a problem if we were to get a surprise fire inspection. Also, if you have an event in Fellowship Hall, please make sure all trash is removed and all leftover food and drink are removed from the refrigerator. Thank you, Bethany

Litany as Lent Begins

Leader: O God, as the days lengthen and the light grows stronger, we thank Thee for the season of Lent when we remember the depth and wonder of faith in Christ.

People: Let thy Light shine through us.

Leader: Lord God, Thou has called us to discipline and to service, to follow in the footsteps of him who serves.

People: Teach us the discipline of faith that we may be free from all that enslaves us.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, Thou didst demand that men and women turn away from former ways and deny themselves, taking up a cross to follow Thee.

People: Make us a willing to deny ourselves that we may truly be thy servants.

Leader: Spirit of God, enter our hearts and minds that we may truly be Thy servants.

People: Accept our praise for the Spirit that enable us to participate in Christ.

Leader: We recall at this time, O Lord God, how Jesus did give himself in love for us, suffering for our sakes, dying that we might live.

People: Our eyes have beheld the glory and the triumph of Christ through suffering.

Leader: We behold the cross and see gathered around that cross those who put Christ there. And, we confess our own involvement.

People: We were there, O God, involved in that dark event.

Leader: Still in wonder, Gracious God, we know that Christ went to the cross freely for our sakes taking our sins upon him and setting us free.

People: We rejoice in the light and love that come into our lives as we stand in the shadow of the cross.

Leader: The words of the prophet have been fulfilled in our time: "He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquity, the chastisement of our peace was upon him. By his Stripes we are healed."

People: We thank Thee, O God, for the freedom, the peace and the wholeness that is ours through Christ.

Leader: Take from our minds all that would keep us from focusing on Christ, who died that we might have life.

People: As he gave himself for us so we give ourselves to him in lives of love and gratitude.

All: Amen
